

Mrs. Cynthia Mosely, who is now in Kansas City, Mo., remembered The Tulsa Star with her subscription this week. Mrs. Mosely is an admirer of The Star, and besides reading it herself, always has a kind word to say for the paper.

Rev. Father W. S. J. Challough, lezicize, graced our office Monday. We are always glad to meet this able man. He has made a favorable impression on the people in this part of the world.

Prof. J. W. Hughes, the popular educator, is at the head of the Red Cross move among our people, and is busy collecting funds, and appointing assistants to help in the laudible move. Every one should contribute, thereby helping to bring cheer to some poor, unfortunate, who is not able to help himself. See Prof. Hughes, and "do your bit."

Quite a number of representative men and women from various parts of Oklahoma are in the city, attending the C. M. E. Conference, which is in session at Brown's Chapel, Bishop Cleaves presiding.

TEXAS CLUB MET

The Texas Club met last Wednesday night at Mrs. Well's residence. The Club changed the name to that of "The Lone Star Club."

The Lone Star Club is responsible for the fuel used by Miss Easter's Totterie for four months. The next meeting of the club will be at 611 E. Archer Street.

(Miss) M. A. Anderson,

Wanted to know—The whereabouts of my daughter, Miss Johnnie Gray. Last seen her 16 years ago when she was 2 years old at Cameron, Arkansas.

Any information leading to her whereabouts will be very gladly received.

Rev. John Gray.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Phillips will spend about 10 days out of the city visiting their home town during the holidays. They will leave on the 22nd inst., and while gone, will visit the following places: Little Rock, Hot Springs, Pine Bluff, Clearwater, and Altheimer, Ark. The Star wish them a happy and a profitable trip.

Mrs. F. L. Oliver, one of our excellent ladies, is working zealously to help swell the Red Cross fund. She is asking her many friends to help her in her canvass. She will strive to visit each home, and business place, therefore be ready for her when she comes.

Rev. W. S. Blake, an eminent pulpit orator, and a real christian gentleman, is in the city, preaching at Union Baptist Church of which Rev. W. H. Woods is pastor. Rev. Blake has been pleasing large audiences, and has demonstrated that he is truly a great preacher.

The "Big Doings" of the M. E. Church are on in full bloom; to-night (Wednesday) will be turned over to the teachers of the city, who will render a program. This is quite an interesting affair, and the public is invited.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. Church recently installed a $50.00 range in the Culinary Department of the church. These faithful women must be commended for the efforts they are putting forth.

Mr. J. L. Northington is confined to his bed. It is reported that he has a light case of influenza.

Hon. H. E. Baker, Superintendent of the Ardmore Lubricating Oil Co., headquarters at Tatum, was here today with all kinds of money to pay off the indebtedness on the machinery for the refinery for his company. He reported the outlook is excellent, and that he was elated over the way the race was rallying to this strictly Negro concern.

LANGFORD NOT DONE

Washington, D. C., Dec. 16.—On Dec. 16, Sam Langford's old time generalship was the chief factor in bringing victory to him when he knocked out "Big Boy" Butler, Rock Island heavyweight, in the fifth round of the scheduled 10 round bout. Langford was given a run for his money only in the third round, when Butler landed repeatedly on the stomach.

GLASS SWORN IN

Washington, Dec. 16.—Carter Glass of Virginia was sworn in today as Secretary of the treasury. The oath was administered by Judge James Hay of Virginia, of the court of claims.

EMINENT EDUCATOR AND STRONG RACE MAN

Prof. E. H. HALL, Hennessey, Okla.

The above gentleman is recognized as one of the best school men in the state. He is a true Race lover, and is sacrificing to help uplift our people. He is the Most Worshipful Deputy Grand Master of the Masonic Grand Lodge of Oklahoma.

Bishop Cleaves of the C. M. E. Church, arrived in our city Monday, and will preside over the Muskogee Conference which will be held at Brown's Chapel, Rev. John McGee, pastor, Dec. 17, 18 and 19. While in the city, Bishop Cleaves is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Williams. This eminent prelate is one of the greatest church men in our Race, and we are certainly proud to welcome him and his conference to Tulsa. We hope to give the daily proceedings in The Star.

Mrs. A. L. Phillips, after spending several weeks in Omaha, Neb., visiting relatives, returned home last Saturday night, to the delight of her many friends. She reports a delightful time. There is one thing certain, Bro. Phillips looks much better since the madam returned.

Mrs. C. C. Hall, wife of Mr. H. B. Hall of Bookertee was in the city last week the guest of Mrs. C. Gar of the Alexander Hotel. Mrs. Hall and husband were passengers on the famous Chief Sam Ship which sailed from this country for Africa in 1914 and she has spent a great part of her time since their return lecturing on the possibilities of Africa. She will leave the state January 1st. for Birmingham, Ala. where she will deliver a series of lectures on Africa.

Essie Jefferson, 14 year-old colored boy of Muskogee killed, Wednesday Dec. 11 by "Blue Jay" a white boy of Muskogee and another companion, both of whom are in jail for the crime.

Miss Woodford, one of our teachers who has been ill for several days, has about recovered. During her illness, Mrs. J. E. Garrett taught for her.

Rev. Ross, a popular minister of Oklahoma City, was in our city Sunday, and preached for Rev. H. T. S. Johnson's congregation. Rev. Ross is an able man, and made quite an impression on our people here.

Mr. E. Z. Gillory, the popular merchant tailor and barber of Muskogee, was in the city Sunday on business.

The East End Garage gave us an order for commercial printing this week.

Jack Dempsey knocked out Carl Morris in one minute at New Orleans last night.

Billy Miske made short work of Jim Flynn last night, knocking him out in the second round.

Presiding Elder Johnson, Dr. C. R. Tucker, W. M. Jenkins, and a large number of Tulsaites are attending the conference at Muskogee this week.

Mrs. James Johnson, one of our popular teachers, will attend conference Friday. During her absence Mrs. J. B. Garrett will teach for her.

The spread given at Mrs. Bell's Cafe last night in honor of the "Boosters" was some swell affair. The men were classy, and after the repass, a ball was enjoyed at the Dallas Flats.

The Managing Editor, Theo. Baughman, will visit Texas during the Holidays to see relatives, and look after business interests. On his return, he promises great improvements on The Star.

Mr. J. Phillips of Sapulpa spent Sunday in our city.

Jim Flynn and Billy Miske will fight 15 rounds to-night.

Dr. J. T. Jackson, the Chiropodist, is in the city to look after his many customers.

Within less than 24 hours, 16 white men were arrested Sunday for gambling.

Five patrol wagon loads of Colored dice shooters Sunday night was indeed a deplorable sight.

Editor A. J. Smitherman left for Oklahoma City last night. He will out of the city a day or two.

There are so many of our soldier boys returning home that Tulsa almost looks like a training camp.

The Star printed some bills for the Sunny Side Cafe's Xmas dinner. Mr. Levi promises the public one of city.

Mr. D. E. Filmore, the wide-awake Salesman for Elliott & Hooker was in the city Sunday after a successful week.

Mrs. Albert Smitherman, of Huntington, Ark., was called to the bedside of her brother who is at this time critically ill.

The walls of the Stradford Hotel are going skyward. This is to be the best of its kind, when finished in the south for Colored people.

Mr. Milton Young, who is now employed at the depot, pumped hot lead into a Colored man Sunday night, who it is claimed tried to get away with an overcoat.

About fifty-five of our men were arrested Sunday night in the pool hall at the corner of Greenwood and Brady Streets while they were engaged in a crap game. The Patrol wagon had to make several trips to accommodate the bone-tossers.

Dr. G. B. Tucker, preached his farewell sermon Sunday night, as his conference will convene next week at Muskogee. This God-sent man has made good, and all Tulsa will be glad if Bisop Connor sends him back for another year.

Quite a number of our soldier boys who have just returned from the Camps attended church on yesterday. This is indeed a good showing for those who attended, and we hope that they will continue to attend, because it is true that when you attend church you are going where godd people frequent.

Dr. C. E. Smith, one of our popular physicians, gave us a job of printing this week; this excellent young physician is not only a first-class physician, but is a musician of rare ability, and his city-wide chorus will render one of his classy programs at Dreamland Theatre Tuesday night.

Mrs. B. D. Peyton and three children, Willie, Ruth and David Jr., are spending the winter months with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Carr of 129 1-2 N. Greenwood Ave. Mrs. Peyton's oldest children, Ruth and Willie will attend school while in Tulsa.

Mr. Jesse Fifer gave us a job of printing for a dance to be held at the Dallas Flats to-night, (Monday).

DENOMINATIONAL PREJUDICE AND CULTURED IDLENESS

Vanishing in The State of Oklahoma; The Black Spurgeon, Dr. J. H. Abernathy Honored By The Ministry.

The unspeakable delight in the coming of the Baptist Convention by the eminent prelate, Dr. C. R. Tucker, pastor of the Vernon Chapel A. M. E. Church, his instruction to the members for unselfish fidelity, their qualified submission, demonstrated their unprejudiced intelligence. The welcome address by Dr. H. J. Watson in behalf of Wesley Chapel M. E. Church to the Oklahoma Missionary Baptist State Convention was gratifying, the tone of his language would rebound with boundless admiration for the reverend gentleman if his address was widely heralded the same would cement closer relationship between the two denominations for organic unity. In part his utterances demands exaltation for his didactic ability. When we read his great address published in the Tulsa Star we found evidence that denominational prejudice and cultured idleness is vanishing. Adv.

Well, they are building up town, and we are still building up here.

Mr. C. W. Brown, one of our young married men, who owns a valuable home, presented his wife with a $600 piano, as a Xmas present.

Mrs. Floyd Blanchette left Monday evening for San Antonio, Texas. Mr. Benjamin N. Brown accompanied her as far as Muskogee. Mr. Brown is an employee of the Big Heart Petroleum Refinery Co. We regret to lose Mrs. Blanchette, who will remain in the Alamo City until Spring.

The Christmas Holidays are coming, and we who shall be fortunate enough to see them, should be thankful. Having been spared to live to witness the Birth of Christ again, we believe that all should strive to so celebrate it in a way that our celebrating will encourage the good things of life in order to strengthen the side of life that tends to build a nation up.
